Teaching Assistant

Required as soon as possible.

William Hildyard is a friendly, one-form entry school with a strong Church School ethos, with highly motivated staff and pupils. We are offering an exciting opportunity to become part of an established team who ensure children are provided with the correct conditions for wonderful learning. We are seeking to appoint a caring and conscientious teaching assistant to support across the school. The successful candidate will support the learning of individuals and small groups as well as personal and emotional development of our children during their time at our school. This post is temporary pending a review of the needs of the school.

We are seeking a professional colleague who:

- Has qualifications or previous experience in supporting teaching and learning throughout the primary age range;
- is a competent and enthusiastic practitioner;
- is empathetic, considerate and forward thinking;
- is willing to learn and fulfil training needs;
- has the ability to form strong, positive relationships with children, staff and parents;
- can work alongside outside agencies;
- is able to facilitate a positive, nurturing learning environment.

In return we offer:

- a supportive community;
- an opportunity to make a real difference and inspire our children;
- a strong Christian ethos which is committed to supporting both children and families;
- a job where no two days are the same!

Please note that CVs and letters of applications will not be considered without a fully completed application form.
